AK ITALIAN OPERA.

IN PLYS SCHNER.

"Hetau finds some mischlef still

And when the two ladies, wishing one ther good lack, start on their respective 17.

There is a beavy fall of stocks,

-Well, this is better than a doz fight

THE VALIANT HUNTER AND THE KICKING GUN.

"I'm loaded for bear this time."

"Somethic's ! gols'

thing does drop

The Model Husband.

Brown-Here's another big bill from Sains,

A Practical Maiden.

He-Marry me and your life shall be one

His Explanation

"Well, Wille, how does the grass grow

Mrs. Brown - Tuest

e tatlor. I declare I'm a perfect bonnas to sands to do."

to in gentlemen's company," and laid the dooth of Firemen Druan at his door. The CELTTIONS TO THE BYENING WORLD Alderman thus attacked retained enough vitality to retort that his vituperator " was (Bridgeling Postage): not fit to be an Alderman" and was "a low-lived cur." After these little amenities the meeting passed from recree nem. Chearful Board, that !

THE AMERICAN SALON.

strengthening existing Art Asso sad of execting a new cas.

riews which will obtain in this project.

PROPIT BY THE LESSON.

The town is still suffering from the lack impudent entrage. The almost morbid endurance of the New ment for putting them all there. Alwhen there is interest enough felt in the ac-

WHIP IT OR.

est energy and sincerity for it.

will only be permeated with the sentime

The Flack business has been further orient personage in it, no less than the ajured wife. Mrs. FLACE died yesterday, have said he saw no reason why this event should dispense Flack and son from the new trial which was granted to them.

Aside from justice to the victim, the abstract question of punishing evil doing is a

ASSEMBLYMAN SULZER.

FLACE and his consorts be release

ted by the elimination of an im-ct-Attorney Nicola is reported to ertant one in the law. Why should sal in its character, it is only recken-es to him.

with again.

They will get it.

one connections. Although existed to any great extent.

The value of a Scripture text and of a reat the Post-Office at For York as see forbide doing aims before men to be seen of 60" BRANCH OFFICE:
SOULD UPTOWN OFFICE-198 BRANCH S
beforen Six and Six one, New York, BOOKLYN-300 FULFOR St. BARLEN-Boo Paparament, 150 East 1500 St.; Advantage content of Six Inter 1500 St.; Advantage postage Six Fair 1500 St.
South City St. WASHINGTON-300 1670 St.
SOUTH ST. them; and the minister, who was scoring down the contributions on a blackboard. retorted that he had heard that text quoted before by one of the meanest men be ever knew who never gave a dollar in charity.

Nine cellar fires in Brooklyn in one after soon looks as if the firebug was abroad is the City of Churches,or else that the natives are not brilliant successes in the lowly task of de corps is, if not essential, most of caring for beating arrangements. What is and desirable for the success of the with fires in the cellar and barbering the ted Balon of 1898. The Academy of hair of little girls Brooklyn is really looking Design declined to send a representative to the last meeting of artists, held in the interve to up as an exciting centre.

ests of this otherns. The reason alleged was that the Council of the Academy fest that National Art would be best promoted that National art would be the promoted The talk shout ROSEST RAY HAMILTON'S presence in this nother world as a living personality is rather silty with the testimony which exists of his death. It seems to have arisen through some detect in technical proofs in the eyes of the law, which will probably be supplied as soon as possible. showed a dense misconception of the Academy. There is not on of " creating a new " Society, but nator Campaon's offigy will throw of getting up an exhibition which I foster American Art, and in which larid clare on Wood's Run when the critica torch is applied to its combustible convery existing art association ought to feel qual interest. Such live men and artists as STANPOND tails. But the Senstor will probably redec with a philosophic smile on the vagaries of American humor and go calmly on his way WHITE, CARROLL BECKWITH, HOWARD

HA BOTLER, WILLIAM M. CHASE A vast amount of energy and a more than PRASER, AUGUSTIN SAINT GAUDEN equal degree of "offensive partisanship," will go out of the United States Senate and the most prominent art workers in New York sufficiently vouch to the public with Mr. Incatte's retirement. What is to for the wholerome vigor and large-minded take the place of these qualities only time The Academy as yet can be only charged with a rather stupid misapprehension of the point. If it obstinately refuses to aid The news that LEGUARD JEROME is dying in London will cast a melancholy feeling Washington, D. C. The cost is to be over been making some highly interesting experiover club circles in New York. Such a $1,000.670. The amphitheatre is to be comments on the brains of various animals, and and abot the undertaking when its attenman as he is a loss to the social life of the me, it will bear out the feeling exing in many minds that the usefulness of city. There are not enough such men for a tropoits like this. emy as a promoter of American rely lapsed after having never

It is suggestive enough that anybody should feel relief at the reduction in th chances for getting all tangled up in a mass of curing wire bunched on a sidewalk !

SPOTLETS.

ork since Sunday repairing the tre-four ravages of the mow and storm. The real lover is a nigher before marriage and fr things are still very imperfectly righted. The nuclic naturally suffers. If in the face of a lessen so practical, and oh has been brought so fertibly home to rybody somerned, the telephone people mly restring their wires by the scores on The Fire Department will help to fire the wires. poles sixty or seventy feet high, it will be

It takes a self-sist new he tessett a selec-An artist to findigh a uniple gown. Yes sense thank they or any other real Can rue a paper in must any lown. — Hery tolklow Hery

Fork citizen is capable of being overtaged. When the long-suffering creature does rise and protest the bruised worm will not be a The fact that a certain per centage of the "A Mone 's a man for a' that," has been som vires are underground is a still stronger

The new Imperial Suby in Gor Jeachim Josef Sumbert. New Josephin? One it be the fiddier? to argue that its like may happen again before a mouth is past. Then this same trouble would have to be all gone through The Queen Regent of Spain is Bury the wires. That is the solution, the only solution. Difficulty and expense are always the two deterrents from remedies

VACRANT VERSES

When the crop je on the market and the cash is in And you hear the clink and jingle of the key turned in the sect. nest of a work. Bury the wires. of the "tens."

And the groce ymbs is paid up and no mere his bill he sen's;

Oh, it's then's the time a faller is a feelin' at his There should be no flagging in the matte of Repid Transit. It is the most importan When he rises from his supper, then downward puls he vest;
As he employ his pipe in comfere and then goes and on of the hour in New York City. want it. They must have it

It will cost no more to get it now than a any other time, and the scoper it is had the Theory sensiting hind o' chearful like about the desired discomfort will there be in the daily when he incore the Summer's over and be deserved. life of the citizen. They are the truest friends of New York who work with the have to ree the daylight's a-people' thro' the And wert until the meen's up 'mid the grain that's ail in bloom; But, lasted, he serier calculates he'll book old "Buch" and "Jose" To hig entire in the oventie' and put on his Squaay ors at Albany will show a clear ded appreciation of the situation if they courtly Meer, with her secon and ner that it is their bounden duty to whip it on and bring it to a speedy end. Out away Oh, the hustin' and the spallin' bess—the Winter's The ranges (the fiddle when the dancing is begun The judgie of the sleigh-bess, your best gai is the The his in and the hoggin' when the old folks are in bed; Thorecasin' of the shostents, the neighbors drop any garnishines that have nothing to do with this prime object, and do not saddle the bill with a rider that has no business Keep the ball in motion. Push it vigor The soul of the apples, drukin' order from a tin; Oh, it sets my nears a-penesis', like a strutte turker cook; When the crop is on the market and the costs is the pool; ously shead until the term is reached. WHAT WILL BE DONE NOW?

> A Legal Point. When Jinks, a famous legal wight, lies Dobbin's dog Ambriton. His garment disappeared from sight With weadren exceedibles; And e.a. out his taken place "I was straightway after brusted That Leaves of this bat uset a case Wherein he'd been son-suited.

He'd barely expelsed his hedroom door When Mrs. J. reposled. The village senter; heen, before His spet workerbe seated. He said he with to tittle such like isolate his reintent over, he isolate his reintent over, he will life which it re-defer. He will life which it re-defer. He will life which it re-defer. He will life which it re-defer.

the poor woman who had so large an inter-set in their course has passed from the scene? The public is still concerned in the question of their guilt. Her Beautiful Byes. Such an innocess girl and so modestly sweet, what a p essure it was just to know at her fee it. I teek were this posters and the superince has while her form was ouporb I was ready to see flor cheeks ware this ruses that bloomout it or flor cheeks ware this ruses that bloomout it or plan you wonder I soon was secure "on her acri-bits seemed of her bind the superinkers prine; I was won by the light of her feestitude just a point which Assemblyman Sulzen, Fourteenth District, is trying to Also! love is blind, or how can we explain to blanders unless we shall my 'to meane.

When I made let my wife my areas info was gone; for form and complexion were simply put on for tach they were faire. Then I comed to applaufor inshout arace, for I found her a fraud, for his mas made golden by herrithe dyes.
Linch! I was mared by her beautiful item.

Chimne Herald. in the Legislature is a very worthy Is wishes the school-rooms where Free Lectures are delivered to be arranged more commodionaly for that pur-pose, and, if need be, that halls in the dif-lment lecture fields be provided.

This is not asking too much. It is reason-shie and directly concerns the people. As-semblyman formus deserves to succeed.

In efforts will secure him the gratitude of the many working people who attend the

He Despised Flattery. croupy see, "you just take this ipccac, and I'll say you are the noticet and most intelligent boy in the United States."

"After that I don't think I need the ipccac. What's the use of namenting me twice?"

Prov Locations of the fails. But he de THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR

Fads, Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

Hairdressing Now Demands a Comb -Mrs. Cleveland Refuses a Tempting Offer-Flowers for Table Decorations.The Princess of Wales's Buttons.

fort were excensive brought out during the public subscription to a church charity in Bornston. Somebody read the text which the Spanish form, made of light colored

Mrs. Cleveland recently received a from a leading megazine, inclosing a check for $800, with the request for an article from her pen on personal recollections of the White

A magnificent amphitheatre for the Chaptauqua is to be erected at Glen Rebo, near pleted by June 1, 1891, and the first session will be held June 2, 1891, and will include, mong other attractions, a woman's departwill be given on home-making and decoration and society and literary and art topics. The lows: Mrs. John A. Logun, Miss Clara Barton, Mrs. Dr. lianite, Mrs. John W. Powell, Mrs. M. Tuttnek, Mrs. Suste Birch Jenning and Mrs. Ida A. Harper.

The Cleopatra dress does not yet deserve to e called characteristic. It is a sporadic fashion, and yet such is the witchery of Egyp and the wile of Bernhardt that, like many poradic and especi-lly many Bernbardteaqu achions before it, it becomes epidemic, and one begins to see many replicas of its flowing leeves of lotus-embroidered gause. The Reportra totlet in responsible for a consider able development of lovely tulies and gausse, tended and embroidered, but otherwise it is not laden with consequences. Its massive gilt or sliver girdle, though one calls it Oriental, to when it served a more useful purpose than any to which we are now likely to put it, too skirt seing pulled through it to disengage the feet

Misses Barrett, daughters of Mr. Wilson Bar-

The "tumbler" scent bottles have stopper now, instead of eilver or silver-gilt tops. The stoppers are just like those used in large glass botties, and fall into the neck, the only differ ence being that they are of silver.

the marriage ring being inlaid with blueeach oride may happen to fancy and choose. This fad has its adv. ntages and its disadvan ages, for the wedding band can thus rarely be distinguished from the ornamental circlet, which may or may not be desirable, according Prints and etchings framed in white wor an lack wide are considered very choice. Three combination frames with horne, cars. bresh and fishing note for marine and sporting subjects have had their way.

The Princess of Wales has a penchant fo artistic buttons, and has the finest collection of jewesled gold, silver, and carved bustons in son carbancies set in oxidized silver, recently presented by her easter, the Empress of Russi Tae Empress Eug-nie has a set of beautifu real pearl carved outtons, that graced her col ored riding habits in the days of the Empire.

A very pretty manner of arranging flowers for table decuration, which is also a novelty is by using the siender cut glass vases which come for this purpose. At a disper tast week fully fifty of those vases were used about an oblong mirror in the centre of the table. Thu method is particularly pretty when the flowers like lilles of the valley are employed.

If Mrs. Alice Wellington Rollins had not aiready written " Neitner Saint nor Martyr," Mrs. Conway could, if she chose, say a word or two that would interest on that much-dised topic, the domestic relations of Mr. and Mrs. Cariyle. One day-read this with the character of domestic churi usu ily attributed to Cariyle well in mind-the Conways were intited to dinner with the pair. When they arrived within sight of the house they found Mr. Carlyle on the steps in the teen wind. He came down the walk to tell them Mrs. Cariple was very ill and the dinner must come off some other time. He had been there fifteen minutes, waiting to intercept them and guard against a peal on the doorbell. How many husbands have equal consideration for a wife's headache and "nerves?" Mrs. Conway pays glowing trioute to the conversational abilities of Jane Welsu Carlyle, but she says she was wholly destitute of housewifely gifts, and causes congestion of the liver and kidneys, she was wholly destitute of housewifely gifts, which are thus unable to fully perform their art that period, for example, of the famous duty of eliminating impurities. Hence lactic need as accumulated in the blood and deposited in antil midnight to bake with many heroics-Mrs. Carlyle had three servants. Mrs. Carlyle could not cook, Mr. Carryle was a orspeptic; let it not be assumed that Mrs. Carryle ought to have made herself a Savarin or a M. Biot, but

MORELL'S TERTHING CORDIAL in teething coo

let not Mr. Carlyle have his character taken

THE CLEANER

When "Poor Josethan" was predor When "Poor Jonathan" was pendaced in German at the Amberg Theatre a critic of ose of the morning papers alluded to the staging of "The newance River" in the third act, and deplored the feet that the Canno people had seen fit to coult this feeture. The Coston peo-ple wrote and denied that "The Sawance River" had seen introduced by Milloreter, the composer, but the critic took so notice of the letter. When the content of the better. When the sequenize of the numbrodita performance, in the shape of musical boxes were distributed, Business Manager Earton hunted about and found one that played "The Suwance River," which he sent with the Casino's compliments to the aggressive critic.

Sam Alexander, the proprietor of the busy and thriving little book stand at the Coleman Boune, has been absent from his post for couple of days. He was married on Sunday. omances, now has a little one of his own.

A typical Westerner is Stewart, of Nevada the famous "Sive: Senator," and one of the few Republican oppositis of the Force till. When he makes his appearance among the swells of Pitth avenue he is found to cut a conspictions, not to my startling, figure. I met him the other morning at the Windoor Hotel, when he came to town on his firing trip from Washington to see his friend Sensor Stanford, and as be pased up and down the luxuri one corridors, his sig somerore fitted over his lett ear is a rakish style, his hands deep down in his pockets and the long falls of along, he attracted more ettention from the r habitues of the pisce than balf a depen railroad presidents would. In stature he me giant, and the long, full, enow-white beard that flows down over his breast gives him a truly patriarchal appearance. He has a kindly, benevolent face, and when he speaks beirnys a slight Southern scornt. No one who talted with hm for two minutes, however, would fall to distinguish in him the bluff, open-hearted Westerner. William A. Cobb, who has been choors .

Chairman of the Twenty-first Assembly Distriet R publican Association in the place of other william Leary, represents the situatocking element of the brown-stone neighborhood. Mr. Cobb is a lawyer of some prominence and for many years past has been one of the trusted lieuten-mus of Dr. Chauncey M. Depew in the administration of the affairs of the Yale Alumni Association, of which he is the tress arer. He to not unknown in politics, having served on many of the committees in the D trict Association, and has always been found among the hartiers in a lively compaign. Prof. William Gilmore Thompson, of the

New York University Medical Cottege, has he recently approunced to his class that very shortly he should be able to issue a directory to cerebral location by which one may infort nest, under the auspires of which lectures himself as to just which particular atom of his gray matter easb.es him to wiggle his little Suger, which acts when he winks at the pretty special woman's Executive Committee ap-pointed to take charge of the work, is as fol-draw his jaw down in expression of sorrow when he says he's so sorry he wife's mamm must end her visit to his bome.

Late statistics say that $600,000,000 has bee spent in drilling for oil. Is there so muc money in the world?

The Chinese buccaneer is a fearfully and wonderfully constructed creature, who shows no partiality as to plunder. Two American misionary ladies were attacked by a band of thes gentiemes some weeks ago and were robbe of everything even to their wire hairpins.

Dr. Pheips and his mysterious bone-grafting experiment on Jonnay Gethins and his dog apparently do not meet the approval of his class of students at the Medical College of the University of New York. The young men say that Dr. Phelps promised the class the day after the operation on Blackwell's Island that he would give them a full account of the experiment. Rumors have reached them that the failure of the operation was definitely assured two whole months ago, jet the doctor still refuses to in orm the young men. This is why the entrance of Dr. Paeipa to the lecture rett, the tragediac, announce themselves as room is greeted by the students with barking contumers in the ranks of lady dressmakers in and growling, much to the annoyance of the mysterious surgeon.

I see that Millionaire John W. Markay has been raising a rumpus in San Francisco ty varia B nk and knocking him out in one round. men in the world, as many of his acquaintances the marriage ring being inlaid with blue-enamel, and the tide has turned from using the plain circlet to employing the style of ring are not the right sort of persons to monkey with recklessly.

WORLDLINGS.

St. Louis is now the largest fur market in the United States. At a recent cale of poits in that city more than a million skins of the 'coon, mask-rat, skin., mink, gray for and opensum were dis-A Boston wigmaker say: that the bulk of the ha Queen Victoria, when dining alone, drinks very weak whisker and water. This is in accordance with her dector's orders, but at hanquese she takes two glasses of Burguady. Lisat.-Commander Berry, who had command of the aspedition sent out to relieve the Arctic ex-pierer De Long, is now stationed at Memphis in charge of the light-bones district.

One reason way New Maxies is settled so slowly t that the great majority of land grants are held be native Mexicans, one Don sometimes owning an on

Well Up in Arithmetic. | From Tesas Siftings |

Little Johnny Samuelson goes to school, and Little Johnsy Samuelson goes to scaool, and he has become quite proficient in arithmetic. Johnsy is toe only child of Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson, but the latter was a wid aw wite six child on when she marked he. Samuelson.

"How are your little brothers and sisters coming on f" saked a lady friend of the 1 mily.

"All three of them are well," responsed Johnsy.

Joanny. There are six of them. Johnny."
"Way, there are six of them. Johnny."
"Yes, m'sm; but you forget they are only half blotch re and half sheers, and it takes two half sheers, and it takes two half sheers." An Insult.

(Pres. Surper's Sasar.) Chelife had just pure- ased his first rezor. "If your father doesn't find it just what he wants," said the catler, "of course we'll change it for nim."

Cold

the jointe and tissues, resulting in the pains and aches we call rheumatism. Hood a Sarsupartill bee had great success in curing this disease, both chronic and inflammatory. It purities the blood neutralizes the lactic acid, and restores the live

Hood's Sarsaparilla Soid by all draggasts. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. HGOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 DOSES ONE DULLAR

"GUIDO FERRANTL"

What queer people those sixteenth century Peduans must have been, to be sure! What they did for a live thood nebody seems to know. Their principal industry, according to numerous dramarie works, appears to have consisted in subscring in marke-places, group-ing in palaces, or posing at g-b-s, work a hero or become b-d anything to say that was par-

Guide, the here, wasn't a Paduan. Parma, a town that gives us such lovely choses, also produced Geddo. In fact, the school-cocks might sak: Name the produce of Parma? And the samewer could be Guide Perranti and cheese. When the produce of Parma? And the samewer could be Guide Perranti and cheese. Generally such that the produce of Parma? And the samewer could be Guide Perranti and cheese. Generally such that the same was the same was the samewer could be guide Perranti and cheese. Generally such that the same was the sa white loveliness, and wearing a nandsome duffy anburn wie and a sweet smile. Guido must have been about three and left. but he was very cutvairous, and the Duke remarked.

"Look to your wives, my lords when this gallast comes to Padus." I must admit that the Duke's tribute to the good taste of the wives and daubt-re of Padus was not excessively compitmentary.

Be that as it may, Guide doted on Bestrice and Bearrice doted back with a mad unreasoning dote, worse than any dote imagined by the sirm of Lobey-Clay & Co., and one for which there was no anti. Beatrice hated the old duke, her husband, and one night the sill little girlish thing killed nim, in the hope that it would place Guide. She took a nice sharp dagger and plunged it into the sged ducal chest. Then she came out of her from, told Mr. Firracti what she had done had the condense to Padus. The noble Parman grew indignact, She was a murderess. He had done that of the workmanshing is not serious. I was too borrible. Get away! Avant! Oh, hateful is no long that it must have taken between the point of the fine-edged bard is so long that it must have taken.

In the Duke's tribute to the good taste of the two more to satical the theatre to attend the theatre to state and the theat he has not less two more to not play for an orchestra stall. Alos he has not less two more to obging and throw away for mere dissipation.

"So, you see, a skilled draughtsman and limner, with an income like this, can alore the square tribute to be a, rollicking ram, with lots of so, you see, a skilled draughtsman and limner, with an income like this, can alore during his essent to be a, rollicking ram, with lots of so, you see, a skilled draughtsman and limner, with an income like this, can alore the set of so, you see, a skilled draughtsman and timner, with an income like this, can alore the set of so, you see, a skilled draughtsman and limner, with an income like this, can alore the set of so, you see, a skilled draughtsman and limner, with an income like this, so was affected to see a collecting the sem of the sem of the set of so, you see, a skilled draughtsma borrible. Get away! Avant! Oh, bateful That naturally made Beatrice angry, and to avenge hersell, she informed the officers that it was Guido, who had killed the Duke. Be was captured and tried. He deciared that he was the guilty man, and Beatrice in a lovely black velvetern dress ($1.95 per yard) stood on the steps of the Court and saiked. They cast Guido into jail, and sentenced him to the blook. Beatrice visited him in prison, and cruel to the last, she seized self, and drank it off as the Grand a rest meiden will drink a glass of vanilla sods. After s few speeches she wriggled and died, and Guido, having politely asked for a little poison from her fips, stabbod himself and died, too. Take it all in all, "Guido Ferranti is a cheery little affair.

Lawrence Berrett was the Guide, and though he worked very hard, it must be admitted that he did not do justice to the part. No Duckess of Padua would have made a fool of herself ever this Guide, was his peculiar features and his sing-song delivery. Mr. Barrett has produced the play very conscientionally, and it is not his fault that he cannot act it. I wonder way acters hanker so much after the emotional, anyway. Lawrence Barrett would make the hit of his hit is fine hit in farce. Think of him as the man with the congs in "Nervea," or one of the three Boutsern gentlems in "A Texas Steer." Miss Gale was a palmataking Beatrice, and John A. Lane excellent in the small part of Moranzona.

HIS WIFE WAS SUSPICIOUS.

The tyranny of the Tyocoon grew finally to be so great that the feudal princes, S60 in number, each of whom had a small protect the whom his first assistant, a small princes, S60 in number, each of whom had a small protect the whose remarkable revolution ever known to history. The 360 princes, or daimios, voluntarily laid down their arms, dishanded their soldiers and retired into private life. By their hands the Emperor was reinvested with the proper authority of a monarch, the office of the hards the Emperor was reinvested with the proper authority of a monarch, the office of the hards the Emperor was reinvested with the proper authority of a monarch, the office of the hards the Emperor was reinvested with the proper authority of a monarch, the office of the hards the Emperor was reinvested with the proper "There we are note." They agreed, and went home. When the legislature next ment the other his first assistanting army of his own, rose and overthers as an extent whose rein chom has small as mall Lawr-noe Barrett was the Guido, and though Therefore He Wanted a Witness to His Personal Appearance.

He was standing in a doorway on Jeffer. He was standing in a doorway on Jeffer-son avenue, says the Detroit Free Press, and presently he halted a pedestrian with a waive of his hand, and beckoned him to a waive of his hand, and beckoned him to approach, and said:

"How do I look?"
"Why, you present a pretty shabby appearance, it you want an hencet answer," replied the surprised cirizen.

'hat's good. Shabby refers to my dress. How's my facial appearance?"

'Pinched and hungry."

'That's excelent. Do I look like a man who had money?"

"Would you class me as bard up and friendless?"

"I certainly would."

"Thank you. To sum up, you would set me down as a victim of unfortunate what of a wanderer, found himself in Whit-circumstances who couldn't get out of this town too fast!"

"That's about it."

as usdal, but the inwyer said:

"I c-n't assist you any longer, as I've got a wife now and need all the money I can lay my hands on."

"Well, now, that's just coming it a little too strong. Here you actually go and get married at my expense," responded the indignate tramp.

The Question Refereed Good Minister-Your little son saked m. what the McKinley bill was, He said he asked you and you referred him to me. Why don't you explain the bill to the little fellow your-nelf?

Descon De Good-I was afraid I couldn't without swearing. Never in Season. that you brought home with you?"

'Oh, I made a mistate," refurmed the little farmer, "'I trought home a lot of hay and instead of grass and. It's all terrace yellow."

'Yoe, He ran a faro bank."

'Yoe, He ran a faro bank." (From the Epoch.)
"Binks was arrested for violating the game

GOODS FROM FAR JAPAN

Made by Artists Who Work for a

Penny a I ay.

Are Not repectly Heeded.

Are Not repectly Heeded.

Are Not repectly Heeded.

When estarth has existed in the head and the appropriate forms for any training artisted, the first have been the macure. It is clearly not be plettureque.

In "Guide Ferranti," the play by Occar Whide, that was presented for the second time at the Broadway Theatre last night, the Pedians were a very nice crowd, a trifle gloomy, and move a head a dealer in this line to a writer for the play would naturally make them, even if they represent the most existerant spirits, but quite interesting for all that. They made nice little grooves in their milet for the leading actors to occupy; they swarmed at a moment's notice, and they were very ridy,

"Guide Ferranti" is a well-writen play, though it makes one feel inclined, like the dove on the mast, to mourn, and mourn, diem is large remuneration.

Are Not repectly Heeded.

When estarth has existed in the theory appropriate to the threather appropriate to the threather appropriate them there is been set under. It is client in the threather appropriate with the case of the stream of the str Gesso, Dake of Padua, and the son awore to be averaged, eiged on by Count Morananae. At the east of the first act we have "The Oeth— With an income of a penny a day a man lingles his ten pieces of money in his frousers pocke; and speculates as to how the will get away with it all. Supposing that he must really be quite extravagant in order to discose of it. For breakfast its buy, and we with the man and water to her, as she stood in that market-place swathed in white here is a she stood in that market-place swathed in consuming it. onsuming it.

If he has any appetite left for lunch be expends a second com in like manuer most have been about three and fitr, but he and his dimer costs a similar sum. Sup-was very calvairous, and the Duke remarked, posing that he cares to attend the theatre.

bard is so long that it must have taken nearly a whose tusk of an elephant to make it from, and yet the original price of this finished article in Japan was only about $4. This will give you a sufficiently clear notion of the cheapness of Japanese labor.

"It seems a puzzle why the Japanes."

"It seems a puzzle why the Japanes." do not come to America f r employment.
Doubless they would were it not that they are so much attached to their own country. It is a wonderful land. I wentyfive years ago it was almost in darkness, and now it is a highly enlightened coun-try with a constitutional government. You may remember that, only so short a time back, the empire of Japan was on a feudal basis, with the throne oc-cupied by a monar-h whose authority was really in the hands of the shiegoon or tycoon. The latter office, originally that of Prime Minister, had become heredi-

The tyranny of the Tyooon grew finally commoners. But the revolution upset all of this, and the empire is now to all intents and purposes a republic, socially manship executed in Japan during earlier mausing executed in Japan during earlier days—such as ivory carvings, leaquer work and so on—are no longer produced. What you buy in a shop like mine to-day is usually an inferior imitation of the art of old Japan."

HIS NOVEL EXCUSE.

A Newspaper Man Who Profited by a Soft Answer.

man County, 500 m les from his base of supplies, and "broke," says the Walla Walla same time without a change of clothing. "That's about it."

"Ithat's about it."

"Ithat's a course is a letter I have written to my wife, asking for money to get home. She a suspicious woman and she won't take my word for it. Please write at the bottom:

"Attest: It's a durned sight worse than Le says it is." And si; n your pame."

The citizen complied and the letter was at once taken to the post-office, been made by some monstrous-pider which a tall, gaunt landlord rushes out and begins excitedly to count them.

"One—two—lour—ten—twenty—thirty—forty—sixly!"
Then he rushes back to the house and calls out to the clock:

"Pour four more buckets of water into the claim chowder, Sam and hurry up.

A Startling Cure.

This certifies that I was stroken with paralysis of the left side in 1866, and have since that time been under the treatment of many physicians and tried various remedies. I could not feal the generation of many passed cance site here by? He left foot from the Acor. I commenced taking Dr. Greens's Morrura, and I am now able to walk without a cane, having good use of my foot and side so long useless. Dr. Grosso's Norrura has oured me of my terrible trouble.

ALEXANDER HORN, Mercos Asylum, Philadelphia, Pa. Sworn to and subscribed before me this M1st day of December, A. D. 1887.

FROM CATARRA TO CONSUMPTION

SYMPTOMS OF BRONCHIAL CA.

TARRH WHICH SHOULD BE HEEDED IN TIME.

Pererunners of a Pate Which May Come to You if the Warrings of Dame Nature Are Not speedily Heeded.

85 A MONTH UNTIL FRB. 1. Doctors McCoy, Wildman and Blair have decided to treat all cases of Catarrh coming to the before Feb. 1, 180 . at the low rate of five deliars a meant nuti cured and iuranis all medicine. Their offices are 5 East 42d al., Et 3th are, 835 Breadway.corper 14th st., New York, and 187 Montague st., Brooking.

DOCTORS

Three of the candidates for the Speakership of the next House, says the Washington Post, were joking to gether a day or two ago over the enterprise of a Washington correspondent who had undertaken to name the Speaker and the chairman of the prominent committees of the next

House. "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," said candidate No. 1.
"I should say so," said candidate No. 2. "Out in my State there were two contestants for the position of doorkeeper of the legislature. In their canvass of the State they met and compared notes. Each had pledges enough to elect him. What is the use, said one, of wasting more time and money? One of us is sure to be elected. Let us go home, and we will agree that whoever is chosen will appoint the other his first assistant. They agreed, and went home. When the legislature next met neither man got a vote."

commoners. But the revolution upset all of this, and the empire is now to all intents and purposes a republic, socially speaking.

A constitution was granted to the people not long ago by the Emperor, a parliament was established and even Furopean costumes have become the fashion, Unfortunately, with these changes the art of the country has become deteriorated, so that the wonderful bits of workmanship executed in Japan during earlier.

"What became of the wife?" asked the interested auditors. "Oh, she came back to her husband," was the reply, "and has had her own way with him ever since."

DESERVED A RECALL

A "Super" Who Played Eight Ghosts in " Macbeth," Young actors often find themselves in tight places, but I doubt if any one was circumstances who couldn't get out of this town too fast!"

"Thanks. Here is a letter I have written to my wife, saking for money to get home. She as suspicious woman and she won't take my word for it. Please write at the bottom:

"Attest: It's a durined sight worse than Le says it is." And si; n your name."

The citizen compiled and the letter was at once taken to the post-office, and the direct was at once taken to the post-office, and the direct was at form being an exemption. The citizen compiled and the letter was at form being an exemption of the calling at the same time as it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we are to have a form the same time as I am told tast it we are to have a form the same time as I am told tast it we argare are to be hung at the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the hung at the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the hung at the same time as I am told tast it we are to have a form the ground. In the evening the farmer happened around that way, and somewhat testily critical this mean? I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of the same time as I am told tast it we are a set of th ever obliged to take eight parts at the tude.

James was so convulsed with laughter that he had to take a seat upon a rock, and the curtain went down. I was recalled by the house, being probably the only super who ever made such a pronounced hit.

It Is Off.

"Don't you like it, durling?" he inquires anxiously, as she critically examines the costly solitaire, with a grave face and slightly costly solitaire, with a grave face and slightly corrugated brow.

'Oh, yes, it is a beautiful ring, "she answers, in deliar-an-ideles-and abort-ones-ar-that tone: "but these are not my initials, hir. Bynthyre: they are my Cousin Clara's."

'Oh, by Jove (that's the second time this year I've forgotten to have those confounded infinish planed down," he answers in a disguisted tone, and further explanation available him not.